Hokshila Andrade what i learned from Dharmen even though we never met in person is that reflectors should b initiated...

Mónica Gómez I feel like it is the thing I want to do the most, being by myself for weeks I hope the place finds me. Initiated by the moon?

Hokshila Andrade initiated by the other types...maybe the moon too i dont know Mónica u tell me:) I am a projector and i see energy flowing if I lets say, say hi on the fb to another projector or reflector...Its not natural for me to bug generators and if i do so i feel like i do disturb their flow and just get myself into trouble...and its totally unnatural for me to bug the manifestors (unless they r distorted assholes and I explode emotionally on them) there is couple of manifestors in hd that i love..and my mind just wants to say hi and bla bla but it just doesnt feel correct...they will come to me if they need something from me...also i noticed when reflectors want to initiate me i just dont hear them...its like stuff they say doesn't stick and it just dont work...does that make sense at all?I watch my partner who is a reflector everyday for past 3 years...I see what the moon cycle does to her...how her face, manners and everything constantly changing during the moon cycle gate to gate and line to line...It might will sound weird but i see that reflectors here are not really for the other ppl, even my partner is not really here for me...i sense that there is so much more for a reflector than to reflect and sample the other types all the time...perhaps that is so 4-6 of me (always investing into ppl and seeing the potential) +pure tribal design (supporting ones I know) so i posted this:)...ps. i have experienced moon cycle without any aura interaction and that was most amazing experience in lil the cabin in the woods in winter,alotta snow,wood burner,total silence with no electricity only candles and water well was like half mile away..but once again i am not a reflector and really looking forwards to hear from you guys if u get to have that experience.happy moon gazing;)!

Mónica Gómez mmm... yes, it is easier for me to be initiated. Relationships, jobs... life surprising you through others. I understand what you say, I don't usually initiate people. -well, in Reiki I do initiate, but just because they ask :) - I am also a 4-6, and I am getting on the roof process... I don't recognise so many changes in the first part of my life. In relationships I was told to be very very intense, making life more alive -amplifying totally unconscious I guess. Years ago, I have changed, and it is true that I recognise some mechanical changes through the month, but I don't feel such a transformation. It would be nice to have a conscious person to report my changes, but I would feel a bit strange hearing that from my partner... Like being observed by an ethologist lol I also feel I am not here for the people, I thought I was here for the animals... But it isn't true either, it is beyond one species, or several. I can't choose why or for whom I am here, it is a surprise :) So nice your experience, thanx! Let's see my relationship with the moon... if I get to be by "moonself" enough time, I may post my initiation (I can't say I will ) Question: Do you have any energy issues? Love solves everything, but I am curious.

Dharmen Leela Swann-Herbert Reflectors with their sampling aura can close or open themselves to the other...they cannot keep out the transits. Reflectors only need to be initiated to decisions (and interactions) that involve the other - activities, projects, places, relationships...No type needs to be asked, invited or initiated to decisions that only involve themselves - all the types except Manifestors need to have life bring them activities, projects, places, relationships that involve others...from outside of their aura - Generators/asked; Projectors/invited; Reflectors/initiated...Leela Hokshila Andrade Thanx for clarifying Dharmen Leela Swann-Herbert , seems to me that what u said is a very important piece of information....so if I understood correctly its probably not the best thing to say something like i did above.Cos I dont really know what anyone needs or especially what reflector needs...Perhaps thats my own projection that it would b beneficial for the reflector to spent a month alone and that is based on my own experience and the stories that i heard from Ra...but i dont really know that, right?And hearing you say that noone is here to b asked or initiated into decisions that only involve themselves it takes that to whole another perspective.. so to suggest someone to take the month off its probably not the best thing to do, right?new day new lesson. Tnx for sharing this...aloha.

Hokshila Andrade Mónica Gómez i am not sure if I understood your question about energy issues, how do u mean?maybe u could rearrange the question?:)

Mónica Gómez I can see moon initiating inner rythm...I can't learn with so limiting language Hokshilla, I meant, we are non-energy types. They say best way to manage energy is generator-projector/ manifestor-reflector. I meant if you could share how is it the energy when you and ur girl are with no other auras. Or with other auras, if you tend to be more energized when around more people.

Sjef Romijn Yes, lovely Hok, we have to wonder if such things not give pressure to Reflectors to need to do, or achieve, prove or whatever. If it flows, it flows, if not, don't worry about it. And it will always be an experience, but what kind... does not matter

Dharmen Leela Swann-Herbert Ahhh Sjef - so beautiful what you say - it isn't just Reflectors - it is all of us that are learning this truth - the experience doesn't matter...it is about the experiercer L

Hokshila Andrade Mónica its not much energy, we could just sit on the couch all day and watch this movie, but the gods dropped us a lil generator child so we chase him around most of the time these days:)
